Vehicle Security Tips; How to Stay Off The 'X'

The Circuit, Magazine for Security Professionals, April 2016

“When considering the dangers associated with your average principal, the most significant threats are most probable to manifest themselves while in transit. Additionally, if you were to research incidents on protected individuals, you will find the majority of attacks occur in or within close proximity to their vehicle. This being the case, vehicle security is paramount and should be heavily reflected in your training hours, research, protective intelligence, etc.”

Using Surveillance as a Tool for Protective Intelligence

The PI Magazine, July 1, 2016

“In the investigative field, surveillance is used mostly as a tool for developing factual evidence to prove or disprove circumstance. However, surveillance also can provide information that is critical to the decision-making processes for a much broader spectrum of investigations than most private detectives recognize.”

 Subj: LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION ICO 1STLT JOSEPH M. LASORSA 8841/0302 USMC

1. I was First Lieutenant LaSorsa's Staff Platoon Commander at The Basic School from January 2009 to July 2009. I was in daily contact with 1stLt LaSorsa in the conduct of classroom instruction, discussion groups, and field exercises. 1stLt LaSorsa was one of my most passionate and diligent students. He was proficient in the field and in garrison. Lt LaSorsa possessed that unique character that made being an instructor and SPC a rewarding experience. It was clear at TBS that Joseph desired to lead a platoon of Marines, specifically Infantry Marines.
2. Since his departure from The Basic School, 1stLt LaSorsa and I have corresponded at least monthly and at times weekly. I have followed closely as he offered updates of his progress, and even his family news. He is always positive and enthusiastic concerning his chosen profession. Despite recent challenges, it is still evident that he is unequivocally devoted to the Corps and leading Marines. Though he has only served a few years, I believe that he possesses the maturity and desire to serve beyond his initial tour.
3. I had the honor of observing and training thousands of Lieutenants and Warrant Officers while assigned to TBS and I know that 1stLt LaSorsa is a devoted Officer. I am certain 1stLt LaSorsa will overcome any adversity and will succeed. Therefore, I would like to respectfully offer my highest recommendation for future assignment and retention considerations.

 Subj: CHARACTER STATEMENT OF 1STLT LASORSA, JOSEPH M

1. Since 1stLt LaSorsa's transfer to the S-3 on 15 September 2010, I have had daily observations and interaction with this Officer; work days that exceed ten hour days. We have interacted on both the professional and personal level.
2. 1stLt LaSorsa instantly earned my respect and admiration through his actions and impressed upon me that he is a man of strong family values and truly believes in the Marine Corps tie to Core Values; I believe that 1stLt LaSorsa is a solid young Marine Officer that is motivated about both his duties and his privilege to be an Officer in the Marine Corps. The very first day that he moved to the S-3, 1stLt LaSorsa made positive impacts on the tracking process for all training that the Battalion was conducting. In my career that exceeds twenty-one plus years I have met few Marines of any capacity with the astute attention to detail that this Marine has. I have served with numerous young First Lieutenants, both as an enlisted Marine of nearly 16 years and as a Chief Warrant Officer of over five years. It is with this corporate knowledge that I regard 1stLt LaSorsa as an officer that stands out amongst his peers.
3. In my interactions with 1stLt LaSorsa, I know that he is diligent in his duties and has a reputation as being both technically and tactically sound. I would serve with this Officer in any setting and believe that his is steeply based in moral conviction and will continue to be a valuable asset for the future of the Marine Corps.

 Subj: CHARACTER STATEMENT ICO 1STLT LASORSA, JOSEPH M 8841/0302

1. I'm writing this character reference letter on behalf of 1stLt Joseph LaSorsa. I first made the acquaintance of 1st Lt LaSorsa in the fall of 2005 while filling the billet of Officer Selection Officer for Officer Selection Team, Miami Florida at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida. I also have the distinct honor of recruiting, training, and commissioning SNO. Throughout the last five years, 1stLt LaSorsa and myself have remained in contact. I have therefore been tracking his officer career and his personal progression. I'm very familiar with his parents, wife & extended family. SNO comes from a strong, moral, and ethical family. His father is a retired U.S. Secret Service agent that runs his own Private Security business.
2. 1stLt LaSorsa stands out clearly among the many Officer Candidates that I was blessed to put into the Marine Corps. It was his keen attention to detail, maturity, respect for SNCO's and Officers, and eagerness to earn the title of Marine Officer that grabbed my attention. His eagerness to train and to lead his fellow candidates has always been his strongest attributes. He was also on time to all OSO events and consistently contributed to assisting other officer candidates. He has grown to become a stable, confident Marine Officer. He has unlimited potential, and can accomplish any task with little to no supervision. He is a true team player and always brings the best out of his Marines. He has consistently carried himself with an impeccable appearance. He is constantly striving to improve himself as a gentleman and a Marine Officer. He is very enthusiastic about his career as a Marine Infantry Officer and has my utmost recommendation for retention and promotion.
3. 1stLt LaSorsa is a highly qualified Commissioned Officer who will continue to make measurable and positive impact on the Marine Corps. He consistently seeks responsibility and is always looking out for the welfare of his Marines. SNO's confidence and organization skills make him a true professional. He is a team player that always excels in any endeavor. I would serve with SNO in any capacity in the future. SNO has my utmost recommendation for retention and promotion. He will not only
